Attention management and ownership of this Store

This is to notify you that May 1st, we're going on strike for one day to demand a $15 an hour wage, the right to join a union without intimidation, and _____ . This is a lawful, peaceful, one day strike. We will return to work unconditionally for our next scheduled shift starting after 12:01am on May 2. You are prohibited by federal law from firing, discriminating, or retaliating against us for joining together to improve our jobs.

We are also striking in solidarity with the thousands of workers across the country that are on strike today. We are joining with our brothers and sisters from around the world to stop corporate greed and demand dignity in the workplace.
