Attention management and ownership of this Store:

This is to notify you that May 19th, we're going on strike for one day to demand $15 an hour and the right to join a union without interference, and _____.

This is a lawful, peaceful, one day strike. We will return to work unconditionally for our next scheduled shift starting after 12:01am on May 20th. You are prohibited by federal law from firing, discriminating, reducing our hours, or otherwise retaliating against us for joining together to improve our jobs.

We are also striking in solidarity with the thousands of workers across the country that are on strike today. We are joining with others from around the world to stop corporate greed and demand dignity in the workplace.
